

Year 4-5 Talk Homework – Week beginning 20.11.23:

Talk Time:

The purpose of Talk Time homework is to encourage a conversation around children's current learning. We want our children to be expert talkers, using a variety of sentences and expressions, and able to back up their points or disagree with others in a polite way. Talk Times help writing, too: it's hard to be a good writer if you're not a good speaker; using ambitious words, useful phrases, interesting sentences is a great way to support your child.

You can add your comments in your child's Homework Book about the Talk Time and how your child has contributed to discussions.

Children shouldn't spend a lot of time on the presentation of the Talk Time homework. Instead, children should just make notes, which will act as a prompt when it is discussed in class the following week. For this reason, teachers will give verbal feedback during the talk time session in class.

Your topic for discussion is:

Should children be paid for completing household chores?
